

Please join us for a discussion on

Delivering Innovative Business Solutions & Clean Energy

Friday, November 10, 15:30 – 16:05
Indigenous Peoples' Pavilion, Bonn Zone

INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL FOR SUSTAINABLE ENERGY

Overview

Exciting solutions are emerging from the private sector that can enhance country ambition & energy security. These innovative technologies & business models are delivering clean energy, increasing efficiency, capturing & utilizing carbon, making the electricity grid smarter and more resilient.

Welcome: Ms. Lisa Jacobson, Business Council for Sustainable Energy

Panel 1

Energy Access and Income Generation Opportunities

- Mr. John Kadyszewski Senior Director, Strategic Initiatives and Director, American Carbon Registry, Winrock International

Creating Energy Access & Increased Resilience Through Minigrids

- Mr. Dan Delurey, President, Wedgemere, Inc., Demand Response & Smart Grid Coalition

Panel 2

Current status of focus on renewable energy and future materials

- Ms. Britta Waschl, Managing Director, e5

CO2-negativity by a new material paradigm: construction material out of CO2

- Mr. Kolja Kuse, Founder of CleanCarbonTechnology CCT

Closing: Mr. Kolja Kuse, CEO, e5

Join the conversation on Twitter with #COP23 and #WeAreStillIn. Learn more about the BCSE at COP 23 and visit: www.bcse.org/cop23. For more information, contact Laura Tierney (ltierney@bcse.org).